The Coleman Karesh Law Library is an academic research library with a primary goal of supporting the work of faculty and students of the School of Law. The law library also actively serves the University community, the government, the bar, and the citizens of this state. We are the largest law library in South Carolina and one of the largest in the Southeast.
Coleman Karesh Law Library Facilities

First Floor
The first floor of the library houses South Carolina and federal statutes, regulations, and cases. It also contains S.C. legislative materials, legal encyclopedias, digests, and general reference material.

The first floor is also equipped with seven public computers providing access to the Internet and Adobe Reader on a first-come, first-served basis. A scanner and a photocopier accepting CarolinaCards are available for patron use.

Circulation-Access Services
The Circulation Desk is located directly to the right of the entrance and provides a variety of services to help patrons better use the library.

Reference
The Reference Desk is located to the left of the entrance. Reference librarians are on duty Monday - Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. to assist patrons with locating and using legal materials.

Attorney's Room
Room 106 is reserved for use by members of the South Carolina Bar. Members with active bar licenses may make reservations by calling 803-777-3367.

Second Floor
The second floor houses books and materials with call numbers A through KF 2993. There are two computer labs available on the second floor for student use, each with 12 computers and two duplex network printers. Students log in using their USC network accounts.

Third Floor
The third floor contains books and materials with call numbers KF 2994 through Z.

Fourth Floor
The fourth floor contains bound law reviews and journals, S.C. Supreme Court and Court of Appeals records and briefs, the Congressional Record, and other archival materials.

Group Study Rooms
Large and small group study rooms are available on the upper floors of the library for law student use. Information about reserving rooms is available on the library website.
