From The Director…

Colleagues –
As we arrive at the end of the Fall semester, I wanted to update you on activities in the library this past spring.

Preparations for the move to the new building are accelerating. In addition to the weeding of the collection and the preparation of the materials for the move, the Law Library has engaged a book mover – Hallett Movers of Chicago.

A library move is more complex than the typical office move because the books and other materials must be moved and they must be moved in order. Experience in moving academic libraries, and law libraries in particular, is key to a successful move. Hallett Movers has both and we are delighted to be working with them.

The interior of the new building is coming more into focus as the finishes are installed. Please see elsewhere in this newsletter for pictures of the library construction in progress. The new space will be very attractive, comfortable and flexible. We look forward to occupying the new space in May 2017.

Cornelius “Neil” Pereira joined us as Head of Technical Services in August. He previously served at the Southern Illinois University Law Library. He has hit the ground running as he remakes this department.

Over the past semester, three colleagues have retired. Gloria Zinky and Karen Taylor retired from the Law Library in August. Roberta Beatty, who has served the University since 1979, will retire in December. We wish them all a healthy and happy retirement. Thank you for your service.

As always, the librarians and library personnel have been busy serving patrons and the public over this past semester. See various articles for more details on activities occurring during this semester.

Please let us know if we can be of assistance.

Have an enjoyable holiday season.

Duncan Alford, Associate Dean and Director of the Law Library

LibraryFest 2016

Charizards, Mewtoos, and Pikachus abounded at this year’s LibraryFest celebration. The annual celebration and educational event introduces 1L students to the Law Library and IT services, and welcomes 2L and 3L’s back to the Law Library. This year’s theme, Pokémon and the Law, was inspired by the Pokémon Go game, which took the campus by storm this summer. Over 100 students attended the event. Among the activities and surprises were tours, prize carts, highlighters, and of course, cake! An extra special treat was the placing of a Pokémon lure near the law library for students that played the virtual game.

Byrnes Exhibit at McKissick Museum

In August, the South Carolina Legal History Collection in the Coleman Karesh Law Library loaned numerous items to the McKissick Museum for its exhibit ‘From South Carolina to the World: Jimmy Byrnes and Political History’. James F. Byrnes represented South Carolina in the House and Senate, and served as governor. He was U.S. Secretary of State, held cabinet positions under president Franklin D. Roosevelt, and was appointed a justice of the U.S. Supreme Court. Among the items are Byrnes’ desk, other office items, and correspondence. The exhibit runs until December 10, 2016. 2016 Halloween Carnival

On Wednesday, October 26, 2016, the Women In Law held its (frighteningly fun) annual Halloween Carnival at the USC School of Law. As always, the Law Library staffed a fabulously decorated table stocked with goodies and books! The kids (and some of the staff) enjoyed the games and fun.

Law Library Faculty and Staff News

Assistant Director for Faculty Services Candle Wester presented at the 2016 annual Mid-America Association of Law Libraries (MAALL) Conference held in Oklahoma City, along with her colleague Michelle Hook Dewey from the University of Illinois, on mentoring entitled “Mentoring: How Giving Back Moves Your Career Forward.” The presentation focused on the benefits of mentoring to the mentor and how to utilize mentoring to develop one’s career. She also co-presented this program at the 2016 SEAALL/SWALL Conference in Dallas.

Candle Wester was also appointed to the AALL Annual Meeting Poster Session Award Jury for the 2017 conference which will be held in Austin, Texas.

Three long-time faculty and staff with a total of over 50 years of service to the Law Library retired in the summer and fall semesters. Gloria Zinky, the former Head of Technical Services, retired in August. In September, former Head of Access Services Karen Taylor retired after 24 years of service. Catalog Assistant Roberta Beatty, (pictured, right) who joined the University of South Carolina in 1979 and the Law Library in 1987, retired in November. In honor of Ms. Beatty’s service, the Law Library held a celebratory luncheon. Photo courtesy of Duncan Alford

Cornelius Pereira joined the Law Library in August to take over as the Head of Technical Services. Neil previously served as the Head of Technical Services at Southern Illinois University School of Law. He earned his Master Library and Information Science from the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign and also a Master of Music from Illinois State University. He enjoys cooking and playing the piano.
