Introduction

This selection of resources provides a comprehensive, but not exhaustive list of important South Carolina legal materials available to attorneys, students, and our public patrons. This bibliography is intended to include some of the best resources available for researching South Carolina law and practices.

It is organized according to type of resource and then subject matter. Resources listed under General Publications include primary sources and finding tools. The Periodicals and Journals category includes journals edited at the USC School of Law and South Carolina practice materials. Resources listed under Subject Materials are secondary sources arranged alphabetically by legal topic. Links are provided for materials available online.

Most materials can be found in at the University of South Carolina School of Law Coleman Karesh Law Library. Many secondary materials are available from the South Carolina Bar, Continuing Legal Education Division.
